Dear Sir:-

Some time last year before I left for the wars you wrote me that you would try to have a photograph made of the 1792 Indian peace medal concerning which we had some correspondence. I can not find that we ever received this, and I am wondering if the matter may have slipped your mind. If it would cause you an inconvenience to have the print made, please do not consider it further. I should of course be entirely willing to bear any expense that might be attached. I know you will appreciate how much we desire to have a record of these interesting pieces, and I am for that reason taking the matter up with you again.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.

Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 8th is at hand, and I am now having a photograph of the medal made, as you requested. I suppose you will only want one of the face on which is engraved the date, figure of Washington, etc. If you want the reverse, please let me know by return mail.

Very truly yours,

C. F. Milliken
